PLEASE NOTE:

Each person with parental responsibility for the child is required to sign this Acceptance Form and the School is entitled to treat any instruction, authority, request or prohibition received from one signatory as having been given on behalf of all signatories and therefore on behalf of all those with parental responsibility for the child.

The only exceptions to this is with regard to:

- a notice of withdrawal of the child from the School;
- a change from joint to individual liability of payment of School fees (please see Clause 4c(i)); and
- a change of the surname of the child used in all School correspondences.

In the above circumstances, such notice must be signed by all those with parental responsibility for the child. (See Clause 9(e) of the terms and conditions.)

The surname of the child used in all School correspondences will be the surname as recorded in the child's birth certificate and agreed as detailed on this Acceptance Form.

[1] Parental responsibility is defined in the Children Act 1989 as "all the rights, duties, powers and responsibilities and authority which by law a parent of a child has in relation to the child and his or her property". It equates to legal responsibility for the child. If you have any doubts about whether you do or do not have parental responsibility for the child you may wish to seek legal advice.
